When any of the following activities apply, you must apply for and be in possession of an Introductions and Transfers licence (s. 56 Fishery (General) Regulations) for each instance. Transferring fish without a valid licence is a violation of the Fisheries Act.

- Any movement of live fish into or within British Columbia to a fish-rearing facility or release into natural waters of British Columbia and/or
- Any movement of fish into a research/educational facility:
 - where the effluent is discharged near or into natural bodies of water in BC, and/or
 - where there is culturing/grow out activity, and/or
 - where fish are not isolated from other aquatic organisms, and/or
 - where fish will not be destroyed at the end of the research project.
